

"Dear lady-folks:---"

"The other day someone asked me---(and she meant to be a little 'catty', you know!)---asked me what cosmetics I used to keep my face so 'soft and 'so full of rosy bloom'---(she meant that for sarcasm!)---and when I told her that instead of using cosmetics I used GAS---she had a great laugh! She thought it was such a joke!---on Me!

"But the joke was on Her!---for it's truly because I use Gas that I have a clear complexion and no crows'-feet. Those horrible things come from hard work and worry--and as I use Gas I have easy work and no worry! I cook with Gas--I use Gas on Ironing Day--I heat my hot water with Gas--(and I have just the prettiest home in town, evenings, 'cause it's lighted by Gas)!

"So, because my work is made light and easy thru using Gas, I'm youthful and happy and light-hearted and--well, er-er- fairly fair-looking!---and if you don't believe it, just look at my latest photo.

"Yours for liking Gas,
"NANCY GAY."

THREE MORE DAYS BRINGS VISIT OF CONGRESS PARTY TO A CLOSE

Chamber of Commerce Dinner Tonight to Be One of Most Important Events

Three more days and the Congressional party visit--the most important tour of its kind ever undertaken in the Pacific--will come to a close as far as Hawaii is concerned.

The last three days will not be so crowded with events of entertainment as those of the past two weeks. Today the visitors are being kept busy but a large part of tomorrow and next day is open. Packing, some farewell talks, meeting citizens--and much bathing and sunning on Waikiki beach--will be the informal program for the territory's guests.

Today the Congressional party is going around the island for a farewell sightseeing tour by auto.

Tonight the Chamber of Commerce dinner will be held at the Moana Hotel, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. This dinner is looked upon as one of the most important events of the entire visit, inasmuch as several speeches are expected where Congressmen will sum up the results of their trip here.

At the dinner tonight, Fred L. Waldron, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside as toastmaster. Governor Pinkham will make the first speech, followed by L. A. Thurston and Delegate Kuhio. The following congressmen will then speak, it being expected that each will occupy about eight or ten minutes: Rep. Carter Glass, Virginia; Sen. Reed Smoot, Utah; Sen. Lee S. Overman, N. Carolina; Rep. J. Hampton Moore, Pennsylvania; Rep. Swager Sherley, Kentucky; Rep. J. G. Cannon, Illinois; Rep. John L. Burnett, Alabama; Rep. M. F. Conry, New York city; Rep. James R. Mann, Illinois; Sen. Ollie James, Kentucky; Sen. Joe T. Robinson, Arkansas; Sen. Albert B. Cummins, Iowa; Sen. Willard Saulsbury, Delaware; Rep. Geo. W. Fairchild, New York; Rep. J. W. Langley, Kentucky.

Will See Experiment Station.

One of the important brief trips is set for tomorrow--the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Experiment Station at Makiki, Honolulu. This trip is taken at the invitation of the officers and trustees of the Sugar Planters' Association. Autos will be in waiting at the Moana Hotel promptly at 10:45 tomorrow and the party is expected to arrive at the station at 11.

Under the guidance of the officers and trustees of the association and the experiment station staff, headed by Director H. P. Agee, the Congressmen will be shown all over the interesting establishment. Lunch will be served at the station.

Two events are scheduled for tomorrow evening. At 6 o'clock the Congressmen will be the guests of the Men's League of Central Union Church. The invitation outlining the program says:

"The Men's League of Central Union Church invites you to attend a meeting of the league next Tuesday evening, May 18. It is to be 'Congressional Night.' The following are to be our guests of honor and the speakers of the evening:

"Senator Martine of New Jersey.
"Representative Burnett of Alabama.
"Representative Moore of Pennsylvania.
"Representative Campbell of Kansas.

"They will address us upon the general theme, 'Our National Policies and What is Expected of Hawaii.'

SCORE OF AUTOS WHISK VISITORS AROUND ISLAND

dant about Kaheohe, an opportunity which was gladly welcomed.

Waikane village held fascinated eyes while the automobiles whisked through "on the fly."

To many in the village Mr. Smoot brought tidings of the proposed visit of Joseph E. Smith, president of the Mormon church, to Hawaii next.

Kahuku was the next point passed, at noon, and as the machines swung around the most northern part of the island a five-mile stretch of what the visitors termed a most beautiful beach, backed by bluish-gray cliffs, was brought into view. The automobiles arrived soon after 1:30 o'clock, the scheduled time, at Haleiwa hotel, where luncheon was served. A band concert was given during luncheon.

After a brief rest, the visitors will continue through the canefields of Waialua and over the Wahluu plains to Schofield Barracks. From the barracks, the automobiles will convey the party to Pearl Harbor and Honolulu, reaching the city in ample time for the Chamber of Commerce dinner at 7:30 o'clock.

Waikiki beach claimed more than its usual number of bathers yesterday afternoon. The weather was ideal for an afternoon outing on the beach and many Honoluluans took advantage of it. There were also many visitors, including the ladies of the congressional party, who enjoyed the ocean breeze at the Moana hotel.

Members of the B and A clubs of the Palama Settlement will stage a play, entitled "The Substitute," in the settlement gymnasium next Saturday night.

eral theme, 'Our National Policies and What is Expected of Hawaii.'

"Assemble in the church parlors at six o'clock. Supper will be served in the parish house at six-thirty. Fifty cents per plate. If you expect to attend please reply at once as the capacity of the parish house is limited.

"W. C. HOBBS, M. D., Chairman.
"Music by Y. M. C. A. orchestra and Kamehameha Glee Club."

At 8 o'clock Delegate Kuhio will give a reception at his Waikiki home. Wednesday is marked "open" on the program. Part of the party sails on the Wilhelmina at 10 in the morning from Pier 15.

The remainder of the party sails at 3 p. m. on the Oceanic liner Sonoma from Pier 10.

ANCIENT CHIEFS OF HAWAII TAKE IN CONGRESSMEN

Senators and Representatives Initiated Into Historic Organization

Ancient customs of Hawaii nei were revived for the benefit of the visiting congressmen yesterday and a score or more of the senators and representatives were initiated into the order of the Chiefs of Hawaii.

The ceremonies were held on Fort Island, Pearl Harbor, and through the initiation of the congressmen they will be held in closer relations with the islands than could otherwise be possible, the initiation holding them bound to do all possible for Hawaii and its people.

The ceremonies were mysterious, the initiated wearing the regalia of the chiefs of yore and each one was given a new name, in Hawaiian. Delegate Kuhio is the high chief of the organization and conducted the ceremonies. Each new member was given a gold emblem of the order.

TWO SCORE KINDS OF WOOD USED IN CANE FOR CANNON

A cane composed of 45 different kinds of Hawaiian woods, mounted on a rod of steel--the woods symbolical of the diverse elements united in Hawaii, and the steel to represent patriotism and love of freedom and right--was presented Saturday evening to "Uncle Joe" Cannon. The presentation was made at the Moana hotel by John Dower, who has lived for 50 years in the islands, who himself gathered the different woods and made the unique walking stick.

Some of the woods used were tamarind, kamahi, hau, victoria pagoda, ohia, kaula, ae, noko maila, curly koa, sassafras, uhuluni, guava, keawe, pomegranate, mawani, silk oak, yellow shower, cinnamon, monkey pod, loquat, kapa, sandalwood, kolea, lama, hao, oia, Java plum, kokoi, keowe, ack ebony, banyan, mohe, maila, Chinese orange, pubala, kaula, molo, light lignum vitae, royal palm and ohia ha.

BOOSTING HAWAII.

Trade and investment conditions in Honolulu have every indication of good times and much money is being received for various agricultural projects this spring from the United States, according to Miss A. C. Franca of the Trent Trust Company of Honolulu, who is visiting in Spokane as a guest of Miss Veda Moe of the Spokane and Eastern Trust Company.

"Uncle Sam has 15,000 men on the islands at the present time," Miss Franca says, "the dry docks at Pearl Harbor being the largest project under way. The strengthening of the sugar market by the war has assisted to help conditions. Honolulu as a city is most prosperous."--Spokane Chronicle.

WILL HE INVESTIGATE FROSTS IN HAWAII?

W. W. Wyatt, who has been assisting in the frost investigations at the Boise office of the weather bureau, received word Monday that he had been assigned to Honolulu. D. C. Grunow, now at Denver, will take Mr. Wyatt's place in Boise. Mr. Grunow has been with the weather service for many years and is acquainted with most of the stations in the Northwest.--Boise, Idaho, Statesman.

Mayor Don M. Roberts of Terre Haute, Ind., serving a term of six years in Leavenworth, Kas., federal prison for corrupting the last election, was impeached by the city council.

ROSARIANS WILL ATTEND CARNIVAL IN HONOLULU

Rosarians will attend the mid-winter carnival in Honolulu next February, as decided at the luncheon this noon at the Commercial Club. They will charter a boat for a 15-day trip then, planning for five days each way and five days on the island, where they will represent Portland in the festivities. Portland, Ore., Telegram.
